Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Thursday 04 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy with showers in morning. Brighter in afternoon. Rather cold.

Today:
It will be a mainly cloudy morning with showery rain and hill snow moving southwards. Largely dry with increasing amounts of sunshine in the afternoon but a few light wintry showers will affect the east. Chilly northeast breeze.

Tonight:
Mainly dry with clear skies leading to a widespread frost, severe in the glens. Cloudier across the far north and east with the odd light wintry shower.

Friday:
A frosty start then a dry day with long bright or sunny spells. One or two light wintry showers possible across the Northern Isles and along the Berwickshire coast.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Saturday and Sunday will be mainly dry and bright in the east but cloudier with patchy rain in the west. Rain possible Monday, mainly in the west. Turning milder.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.